

Sometimes our relationships need a little help to get through the difficult times...

- Are you finding it difficult to express your feelings to your partner?
- Do you think you have a 'voice' in your relationship?
- Are you feeling unsure about your future?
- Are you unhappy because your needs are not being met?

Do any of these questions resonate with you?

Healthy relationships allow us to lead full and rewarding lives. When problems arise that we can't manage, they can cause us pain and distress and affect those relationships that are most important to us.

At the Atrium Clinic we offer a confidential service that gives you the opportunity to talk to an experienced Couples Counsellor who will give you the space and time to talk through your problems and concerns.
